TOUR of a LIFETIME - MENDOCINO WINERIES
THAT GROW GRAPES ORGANICALLY and BIODYNAMICALLY

Conscious consumers seek out wines that are environmentally and fish friendly, whereby no Round-Up, GMOs, or petrochemical based herbicides and pesticides are used in the vineyards or wine production. Salmon and steelhead fish that live in the creeks near these vineyards are safe from poisoning. Field workers do not get health disorders from exposure to contaminated air, soil or irrigation water. The following wineries use grapes grown by CCOF organic or Biodynamic standards to make their great tasting and award winning wines. Area Code (707)

56 Mendocino Coast ORGANIC WINE TOUR

HANDLEY CELLARS

Ten miles inland from the rugged Mendocino Coast and 100 miles north of San Francisco, lies the lovely Anderson Valley. This unique viticultural region with redwood forests to the west and oak studded hillsides to the east is the setting for Handley Cellars, a small family owned winery founded in 1982. Milla Handley, the great-great granddaughter of Henry Weinhard of brewing fame and her husband Rex McClellan founded Handley

Cellars in the basement of their home near Philo. On the 30 acres of estate vineyards grow Chardonnay, Gewurztraminer and Pinot Noir grapes. Currently the winery is releases vintages of Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Gewurztraminer, Pinot Gris, Pinto Rose, Pinot Noir, Zinfandel, Syrah and Sparkling Wines. The "Cellar Club" is for those who want to receive regular shipments of Handley Cellars award winning wines. The art filled tasting room and picnic area are most inviting. Open daily from 11am to 4pm.

ORGANIC WINE TOUR Mendocino Coast 57

The certified organic vineyards are located at the top of the Anderson Valley at 2,000 feet elevation. Here Jessa and Emma, owners of Sea Wolf Wines, are out for a stroll with _____.

LE VIN and SEAWOLF WINES - A family dedicated to Organic

These wineries are a family partnership between Holly and Eric of Levin and their son Jesse (the surfer) and his charming, but grounded wife Emma; of Seawolf Winery. This family is dedicated to natural winemaking and hands-on organic farming. All their grapes are grown organically on their 164 acre ranch in the scenic Yorkville Highlands Appellation of Mendocino County. In 1999 Le Vin Vineyards released its first cabernet sauvignon and merlot from their organically grown grapes harvested from their picturesque 16 acres of organically grown mountain grapes.

Living life in the vineyard and on the sea spawned Seawolf Wines. Here you can sip on hand-crafted, small production natural wines made from organic grapes while being swept away by panoramic views overlooking their organic vineyard in the Yorkville Highlands. The pet friendly Seawolf outdoor tasting room is open daily, from 10am to 7pm; reservations are recommended. They are the first winery on Highway 128 as you enter the Anderson Valley into Mendocino County, located only 35 minutes Northwest from Healdsburg near the Sonoma County line, where the vines meet the redwoods.

BARRA of MENDOCINO WINERY and EVENT CENTER

The Barra family and friends have been instrumental in nurturing California's organic wine movement. Charley and Martha Barra laid the foundation for Mendocino Counties strong passion for growing grapes in harmony with nature. Now Mendocino County is the leader as far as percentage of vineyards in organic production. Charlie passed in 2020, but his legacy lives on, thoughtfully managed by Martha, her family and a talented staff.

Today the Barras have 250 acres certified organic grapes and a high profile tasting room on busy Highway 101 just north of Ukiah. Vineyard reservoirs collect and hold precious Redwood Valley water. The ponds teem with fish and dragonflies of every color of the rainbow. Song birds, owls, hawks, butterflies, hummingbirds like it here and each contributes to the organic chain of life.

Releases include Barra white wines - Chardonnay, Pinot Blanc and the ever popular Muscat Canelli and the Barra reds include Pinot Noir, Petite Sirah and Cabernet Sauvignon and Charley's Blend. You can visit the vineyards by appointment or the tasting room from 10am - 5pm daily which is located 6 miles north of Ukiah on North State Street. The beautiful tasting room provides a stunning backdrop for special events including weddings, corporate gatherings, anniversary parties and more for up to 200. To learn more about Barra's special event services you can email events@barraofmendocino.com or call us at 707-485-0322. Along one wall are photos of Mendocino Counties wine pioneers including Charlie and many other notables who helped pioneer the organic wine movement in Mendocino County.
